

AGNES ETHERINGTON ART CENTRE AT QUEEN'S

Position title: Crash Studio Assistant

Supervisor: Program Coordinator

Description: Shaped by teens, Crash Studio brings forth a collision of creative minds who find common ground through art making. Responding to the visual culture in the galleries and to social issues faced by teens, Crash Studio is a platform for self-expression across art media. This free, drop-in program is facilitated by local artists. The assistant plays a crucial role in this outreach initiative by helping the artist in facilitating and coaching participants in different art projects, preparing the studio and cleaning up after each session. The assistant will gain knowledge of Agnes exhibitions and experience in interacting with diverse youth participants.

Term of placement: Fall semester 2018, winter semester 2019

Time requirements: Three hours a week, 2:30 to 5:30 pm, Thursdays, exact dates to be confirmed.

Qualifications: Two years toward a Bachelor's Degree in Fine Art or Art History

Good communication skills

Canadian Police Information Centre Record Check

Experience working with youth, either as a tutor or in summer camps

Interest in the community role of a public art gallery

Membership in the Agnes Student Docent Program is an asset

Application requirements: Send an email stating your interest in the position, along with a resume to pubprog@queensu.ca by 22 March 2018. The Programs Assistant will follow up with you.
